1694 Interior View of Christ Church where George Washington worshipped.
Published by T. F. Ellis, Mt. Vernon Railroad Station

Sept 28th 1907. 3.55 P.M.

Writing on this part of the address side permitted after March 1, 1907

WASHINGTON, D.C. SEP 28 930 PM 1907

Am writing in Bishop's room waiting for Mr Appleton to return. It is raining now very hard, & feel sure the three Misses A. and I will not get to the R.C. University. We heard the Archbishop of the West Indies this morning fine address. Hope Lord Cairns will manage for all the ceremonies [illegible] & Mr. Mrs Norfolk in Westminster

Post-Card

H. M. Lotter Esq
554 W 114 St.
New York
N. Y.